2019 Global Rule Settings

Each team must read and agree to the rules for participation. Failure to follow the rules will result in removal. Participation in our matches is considered agreement and consent to our rules. Each player is expected and required to follow these rules:

Player Conduct

All players are to be respectful of all other competitors. If a player is being abusive in any manner their team's risks point removal, bans or expulsions from the Tournament.

Game Rules

1. Each player may only use their own account.
2. Players are allowed to bring their own gear.
3. Each team must have the total required amount of team members to enter. If a team mate disconnects during the match and is unable to reconnect the game will continue.
4. Cheating is strictly prohibited. No player should be manipulating game files, using unapproved game modifications, or any other method by which one may gain an unfair advantage over another player.
5. Streamers are welcome to broadcast their tournament play however the potential of stream sniping must be taken into consideration. We recommend a minimum stream delay of 5 minutes. Official PUBG terms and conditions state 120 seconds must be the minimum for any PUBG Tournament based games.
